

SATS:2022

September 7-9, 2022

Welcome to Helsinki, Finland!

The 13th Joint Scandinavian Conference in Cardiothoracic Surgery SATS2022

Dear industrial collaborator,

We cordially invite you to the 13th Joint Scandinavian Conference in Cardiothoracic Surgery in Helsinki September 7 – 9, 2022. The meeting is organized by the Scandinavian Association of Thoracic Surgery (SATS) together with the Finnish Association for Thoracic Surgery, Scandinavian Association for Extracorporeal Technology (SCANSECT) and the Scandinavian Association of Thoracic Nurses (SATNU). The congress venue is Scandic Marina Congress Center Helsinki.

There will be an exciting scientific program on a variety of heart valve surgery, coronary artery surgery, aortic surgery, lung cancer surgery, mechanical circulatory support and heart-lung transplants. A number of internationally renowned speakers have already confirmed their participation. We expect over 300 participants from the Nordic and Baltic regions, spanning the specialty fields of cardiothoracic surgery, anesthesia, perfusion and nursing.

Abstract submissions are highly valued. The abstract session will be covering scientific studies and clinical cases with oral and poster presentations. Details of the scientific program will be available on the Congress website, SATS2022.com

An industry related breakfast & lunch-symposium is offered for main sponsors. We will also have workshop on Wednesday for you to be able to join. Additionally, sponsored presentations and commercials announced during the meeting are possible according to agreement. The on-site exhibition will take place by the conference hall. All coffee breaks will be held there to ensure exhibitions will receive the best possible exposure.

Looking forward to receiving your support of our meeting in September!

SATS/SCANSECT/SATNU

Vesa Anttila MD PhD, President of the SATS 2022 meeting
