

Friday September 5th, 2025
08.15 – 09.00
Clarion Hotel & Congress Malmö Live

What you don't care about in your PsA patients, but you should

Learning objectives:

- How to adjust patient examination and imaging to the complexity of psoriatic arthritis (PsA): axial disease, skin
- How to optimize patient treatment to the complexity of the disease
- How to identify some of the factors affecting response to treatment

Speaker:

Prof. Laure Gossec
MD, PhD from Paris, France

Moderator:

Tomas Husmark
MD, Spec. Rheum. from Falun, Sweden

Topics covered during the symposium:

- Axial manifestations
- Difficult to assess aspects of PSO
- Obesity

Prof. Laure Gossec is Full Professor (First Class) of Rheumatology at Pitié-Salpêtrière Hospital and Sorbonne Université, Paris, France.

In her half-time clinical position, she sees patients with inflammatory rheumatic diseases on an outpatient and inpatient basis, with expertise in psoriatic arthritis, axial spondyloarthritis and rheumatoid arthritis. In 2024, she was ranked 'second best rheumatologist in France' (Le Point ranking).

In her academic role, she teaches and performs research. She is the Founder and Director of the patient-physician relationship Teaching Department at Sorbonne Université's Faculty of Health and also teaches rheumatology.

Among other subjects, her research work focuses on psoriatic arthritis, including patient reported outcomes, clinical and epidemiological research, and trials for drugs in PsA. She has been for the last 10 years, the first author of the EULAR treatment recommendations for PsA, last updated 2 years ago. Prof. Gossec has authored or co-authored close to 550 scientific publications.

In June 2025 Prof. Gossec was elected to become President-Elect of EULAR.

Prof. Laure Gossec, MD, PhD
Sorbonne Université Paris France

Registration for the breakfast symposium is completed along with your registration for the Scandinavian Congress of Rheumatology (SCR). The breakfast symposium is part of the official program during SCR.

Novartis does not cover the registration fee, travel, or accommodation in connection with the meeting.